

Robert L. Reynolds

President and Chief Executive Officer

Great-West Lifeco U.S. LLC
Great-West Financial
Putnam Investments, LLC

Robert Reynolds was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of Great-West Lifeco U.S. LLC in 2014, overseeing the Great-West's business in the United States. He is also President and Chief Executive Officer of Great-West Financial® and Putnam Investments. Bob has over 30 years of financial services and investments experience.

Among many awards and recognitions, Bob received a Lifetime Achievement Award from PLANSPONSOR magazine in 2005 for his contributions to the retirement services industry and was awarded a President's Medal of Excellence from Boston College. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration/finance from West Virginia University, from which he also received an honorary doctorate in business administration and a Distinguished Alumni Award.

Bob serves on the boards of several nonprofits, including West Virginia University Foundation, Concord Museum, Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, Nantucket Cottage Hospital and the U.S. Ski and Snowboard Team Foundation. He is chairman of the Boston Advisory Board of American Ireland Fund and a member of the Chief Executives Club of Boston and the Council on Competitiveness.

