Great-West Lifeco earns prestigious ‘A’ ranking by CDP

Winnipeg, MB, December 8, 2020. . . Great-West Lifeco Inc. today announced that it has been recognized for leadership in environmental transparency by global environmental non-profit CDP, securing a place on its prestigious ‘A List’ for tackling climate change. Great-West Lifeco placed in the top five per cent of companies globally, and for the sixth consecutive year, achieved the highest rating among Canadian insurance companies.

“We are proud to be recognized as a leader for our commitment to carbon management, and we understand that managing climate-related risks and opportunities is the right thing to do for the well-being of our stakeholders, communities and long-term viability as a business,” said Paul Mahon, President and Chief Executive Officer, Great-West Lifeco. “This achievement reflects our commitment to respecting the environment and taking a balanced, sustainable approach to everything we do.”

This accolade speaks to Great-West Lifeco’s commitment to sustainability across its operations, risk management practices, and in assessing the exposure of its investment portfolio to a broad range of climate-related risks and opportunities, both in Canada and abroad. Great-West Lifeco also re-affirmed its commitment to addressing climate-related risks and opportunities by becoming an official Supporter of the recommendations of the Financial Stability Board’s Taskforce on Climate-related Financial Disclosures.

CDP’s annual environmental disclosure and scoring process is a widely recognized standard of corporate environmental transparency. In 2020, more than 515 investors with more than US$106 trillion in assets and more than 150 major purchasers with US$4 trillion in procurement spend requested companies to disclose data on environmental impacts, risks and opportunities through CDP’s platform.
