The First Preferred Shares of the Corporation may be issued in one or more series with such rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions as the Board of Directors of the Corporation designates. The Board of Directors of the Corporation has designated 8,000,000 of the First Preferred Shares as Series D First Preferred Shares, 24,000,000 of the First Preferred Shares as Series E First Preferred Shares, 8,000,000 of the First Preferred Shares as Series F First Preferred Shares and 12,000,000 of the First Preferred Shares as Series G First Preferred Shares, of which 8,000,000 Series D First Preferred Shares, 23,868,115 Series E First Preferred Shares, 7,957,001 Series F First Preferred Shares and 12,000,000 Series G First Preferred Shares are issued and outstanding.

Great-West Lifeco considers the Series H First Preferred Shares to be core capital. If the Corporation determines to redeem the Series H First Preferred Shares in full, it intends to replace the Series H First Preferred Shares with securities ranking pari passu or junior to the Series H First Preferred Shares, issued on or before a day that is not more than six months after the date of the redemption of the Series H First Preferred Shares.

The following is a summary of certain provisions of the First Preferred Shares as a class and of the Series H First Preferred Shares.

Certain Provisions of the First Preferred Shares as a Class

Priority

With respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, the First Preferred Shares of each series rank on a parity with the First Preferred Shares of every other series and in priority to the Second Preferred Shares, the Common Shares and any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares. On such a distribution, the rights of the holders of the First Preferred Shares of each series will be subject to the prior satisfaction of all claims of all creditors of the Corporation and of holders of shares of the Corporation ranking prior to the First Preferred Shares.

Approval by First Preferred Shareholders

In addition to any shareholder approvals required by applicable law, the approval of the holders of the First Preferred Shares as a class, given in the manner described under “Modification” below, is required to delete, add to or vary any right, privilege, preference, restriction or condition attaching to the First Preferred Shares as a class.

Voting Rights

Subject to the temporary voting rights discussed below, the holders of First Preferred Shares of any series shall not be entitled to notice of or to attend or to vote at any meeting of the Corporation or of its shareholders except as may be specifically provided in the provisions attaching to the First Preferred Shares of such series.

Modification

The approval of all deletions from or additions to or variations of the provisions of the First Preferred Shares as a class and any other approval required to be given by the holders of the First Preferred Shares may be given by a resolution passed by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a general meeting of the holders of First Preferred Shares duly called for that purpose. On any vote held in respect of such a resolution, holders of First Preferred Shares will be entitled to one vote per share. The formalities to be observed in respect of the giving of notice of any such meeting or any adjourned meeting and the conduct thereof will be those from time to time prescribed by the Canada Business Corporations Act (as from time to time amended, varied or replaced) and the by-laws of the Corporation with respect to meetings of shareholders.

Temporary Rights and Obligations

Section 411 of the Insurance Companies Act (“ICA”) requires that certain insurance companies, including Great-West Life, have voting shares carrying at least 35% of the voting rights attached to all of the outstanding shares of the insurance company beneficially owned by persons other than a “major shareholder” of the company (or an entity controlled by a major shareholder) (the ‘Public Voting Requirement’). The ICA provides that a person is a major shareholder of the company where (A) the aggregate of: (i) any voting shares of a class beneficially owned by the person and (ii) any voting shares of a class beneficially owned by entities controlled by the person, exceeds 20% of all the outstanding shares of that class or (B) the aggregate of (i) any non-voting shares of a class beneficially owned by the person and (ii) any non-voting shares of a class beneficially owned by entities controlled by the person, exceeds 30% of all the outstanding shares of that class.

As permitted by the ICA, the Public Voting Requirement applicable to Great-West Life has been satisfied by the Corporation by provisions in the Corporation’s articles relating to, among other things, the attachment of voting rights to the First Preferred Shares and constraints on the issue and transfer of the First Preferred Shares. Such provisions currently apply to the First Preferred Shares and will continue to apply until the earlier of the date that: (i) Great-West Life satisfies the Public Voting Requirement in some other manner; (ii) Great-West Life is not required to satisfy the Public Voting Requirement; or (iii) the Board of Directors of the Corporation determines that it is no longer in the best interests of the Corporation to satisfy the Public Voting Requirement, and the Board of Directors has thereafter removed such voting rights (such period of time, the ‘Temporary Period’). The temporary rights and obligations of the holders of First Preferred Shares during the Temporary Period are set out below.

Temporary Voting Rights and Restrictions

Holders of First Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive notice of and to attend all meetings of holders of voting shares of the Corporation during the Temporary Period other than meetings of holders of a class or series of a class of shares at which such holders are entitled to vote separately as a class or series of a class. Each First Preferred Share, from time to time, shall carry such number of votes calculated based on a formula set out in the articles of the Corporation. The formula provides that the number of votes that can be cast by holders of Common Shares and holders of First Preferred Shares, who (i) do not hold a Significant Interest, for the purposes of the ICA, in the Common Shares as a class or in the First Preferred Shares as a class and (ii) are not controlled by a person who holds a Significant Interest in the Common Shares as a class or in the First Preferred Shares as a class, will equal 35% of the outstanding voting rights attached to all voting shares of the Corporation. There are restrictions on the voting rights attached to First Preferred Shares where a person holds such shares in contravention of the Public Voting Requirement during the Temporary Period. One of these restrictions provides that where First Preferred Shares are held by a person who has a Significant Interest in the First Preferred Shares as a class, or an entity controlled by such person owns any First Preferred Shares, the voting rights attached to the First Preferred Shares of such person or entity may not be exercised.

Temporary Constraint on Issue and Transfer

During the Temporary Period, First Preferred Shares may neither be issued, nor registered in the securities register of the Corporation as transferred, where such issue or transfer would result in a person acquiring a Significant Interest in the First Preferred Shares as a class.

Declaration of Shareholder

To facilitate the monitoring of compliance with the constraints on the issue, transfer and voting rights of the First Preferred Shares, the Board of Directors of the Corporation may, in certain circumstances, require any holder of First Preferred Shares to furnish a declaration as to matters relevant, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, to determine compliance with such share constraints.

Certain Provisions of the Series H First Preferred Shares

Dividends

The holders of the Series H First Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive quarterly non-cumulative preferential cash dividends, if, as and when declared by the Board of Directors, on the last day of March, June, September and December in each year at a rate equal to $0.30313 per share. The initial dividend, if declared, will be payable on September 30, 2005 and will be $0.16277 per share, assuming an issue date of August 12, 2005.

If the Board of Directors of Great-West Lifeco does not declare any dividend or part thereof on the Series H First Preferred Shares on or before the dividend payment date for a particular quarter, then the right of the holders of the Series H First Preferred Shares to such dividend or part thereof for such quarter will be extinguished.

Redemption by the Corporation

The Series H First Preferred Shares will not be redeemable prior to September 30, 2010. Subject to the provisions of any shares of the Corporation ranking prior to or pari passu with the Series H First Preferred Shares, and to the provisions described under “Restrictions on Dividends on and Retirement of Other Shares”, the Corporation may redeem on or after September 30, 2010 all, or from time to time any, of the then outstanding Series H First Preferred Shares. Such redemption may be made upon payment in cash of the amount of $26.00 per share if redeemed prior to September 30, 2011, $25.75 per share if redeemed on or after September 30, 2011 and prior to September 30, 2012, $25.50 per share if redeemed on or after September 30, 2012 and prior to September 30, 2013, $25.25 if redeemed on or after September 30, 2013 and prior to September 30, 2014, and $25.00 if redeemed on or after September 30, 2014, in each case together with an amount equal to all declared and unpaid dividends thereon to but excluding the date of redemption. The Corporation shall provide not less than 30 nor more than 60 days’ notice of such redemption to each holder of Series H First Preferred Shares to be redeemed. If less than all of the outstanding Series H First Preferred Shares are at any time to be redeemed, the shares to be redeemed will be selected pro rata (disregarding fractions) or in such manner as the Corporation may determine.

Purchase for Cancellation

Subject to the provisions described under “Restrictions on Dividends on and Retirement of Other Shares”, and subject to the provisions of any shares of the Corporation ranking prior to or pari passu with the First Preferred Shares, the Corporation may at any time, or from time to time, purchase for cancellation all or any part of the Series H First Preferred Shares at the lowest price or prices at which such shares are obtainable in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Restrictions on Dividends on and Retirement of Other Shares

So long as any of the Series H First Preferred Shares are outstanding, the Corporation shall not, without the approval of the holders of the Series H First Preferred Shares given as described under “Modification of Series” below:

- (i) declare or pay any dividend (other than stock dividends in shares ranking junior to the Series H First Preferred Shares) on the Common Shares or any other shares of the Corporation ranking junior to the Series H First Preferred Shares;
- (ii) except out of the net cash proceeds of an issue of shares of the Corporation ranking junior to the Series H First Preferred Shares, redeem, purchase or otherwise retire or make any return of capital in respect of the Common Shares or other shares of the Corporation ranking junior to the Series H First Preferred Shares;
- (iii) redeem, purchase or otherwise retire or make any return of capital in respect of less than all of the Series H First Preferred Shares;
- (iv) except pursuant to any purchase obligation, sinking fund, retraction privilege or redemption provisions attaching thereto, redeem, purchase or otherwise retire or make any return of capital in respect of any shares of the Corporation ranking pari passu with the Series H First Preferred Shares; or
- (v) except pursuant to any purchase obligation, sinking fund, retraction privilege or redemption provisions attaching thereto or out of the net cash proceeds of an issue of shares of the Corporation ranking junior to the Series H First Preferred Shares, redeem, purchase or otherwise retire or make any return of capital in respect of any shares of the Corporation ranking in priority to the Series H First Preferred Shares;

unless all cumulative dividends then accrued and unpaid up to and including the most recent applicable dividend payment date for the last completed period for which dividends were payable shall have been declared and paid or set apart for payment in respect of each series of cumulative First Preferred Shares, if any, then issued and outstanding and on all other cumulative shares, if any, ranking pari passu with the First Preferred Shares and the dividends for the immediately preceding dividend payment period in respect of each series of non-cumulative First Preferred Shares (including the Series H First Preferred Shares) then issued and outstanding and on all other shares ranking prior to or pari passu with the Series H First Preferred Shares shall have been declared and paid or monies set aside for payment thereof.

Voting Rights

During the Temporary Period, the holders of the Series H First Preferred Shares are entitled to receive notice of and to attend and to vote at any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation in accordance with the rights of holders of First Preferred Shares as a class and do not have any additional rights in such respect by holding Series H First Preferred Shares. Upon the termination of the Temporary Period as described under “Details of the Offering — Certain Provisions of the First Preferred Shares as a Class — Temporary Rights and Obligations”, the holders of the Series H First Preferred Shares will not be entitled as such to receive notice of or to attend or to vote at any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation unless and until the Corporation shall have failed to declare and pay the whole amount of a quarterly dividend on the Series H First Preferred Shares. In that event, until such time as the Corporation pays the whole amount of a quarterly dividend on the Series H First Preferred Shares, the holders of such shares will be entitled to receive notice of and to attend meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation at which directors are to be elected and will be entitled to vote for the election of two directors to be elected in conjunction with the holders of any other series of First Preferred Shares which may have a similar right. On any such vote, holders of Series H First Preferred Shares will be entitled to one vote per share, provided that if the shares of any other series of First Preferred Shares have a retraction, redemption or issue price less than the redemption price of the Series H First Preferred Shares, the number of votes per Series H First Preferred Share will be adjusted pro rata.

Rights on Liquidation

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation or other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, whether voluntary or involuntary, subject to the prior satisfaction of the claims of all creditors of the Corporation and of holders of shares of the Corporation ranking prior to the Series H First Preferred Shares, the holders of the Series H First Preferred Shares shall be entitled to be paid and to receive an amount equal to $25.00 per Series H First Preferred Share plus declared and unpaid dividends up to and including the date of distribution before any amount shall be paid or any assets of the Corporation shall be distributed to the holders of Common Shares or of shares of any other class of the Corporation ranking junior to the Series H First Preferred Shares. After payment to the holders of the Series H First Preferred Shares of the amount so payable to them, they shall not be entitled to share in any further distribution of the assets of the Corporation.

Modification of Series

Approval of variations to the provisions of the Series H First Preferred Shares as a series and any other authorization required to be given by the holders of such shares may be given by a resolution passed by an affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the votes cast at a general meeting of the holders of Series H First Preferred Shares duly called for such purpose and held upon at least 21 days’ notice at which the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of such series are present in person or represented by duly qualified proxy or, if no quorum is present at such meeting, at an adjourned meeting at which the holders of Series H First Preferred Shares then present in person or represented by proxy will form the necessary quorum. On any vote held in respect of such a resolution, holders of Series H First Preferred Shares will be entitled to one vote per share.

Tax Election

The provisions of the Series H First Preferred Shares as a series require the Corporation to make an election in prescribed form pursuant to the provisions of subsection 191.2(1) of the Income Tax Act (Canada), and within the time limits provided therein, for purposes of determining the tax payable under Part VI.1 of such Act with respect to the Series H First Preferred Shares. See “Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations”.

In consideration for their services in connection with this offering, the Corporation has agreed to pay the Underwriters a fee equal to $0.25 per Series H First Preferred Share sold to certain exempt institutions and $0.75 per share with respect to all other sales of Series H First Preferred Shares. Assuming that no Series H First Preferred Shares are sold to such institutions and that the Underwriters' Option referred to below is not exercised, the Underwriters' fee will be $9,000,000. All fees payable to the Underwriters will be paid on account of services rendered in connection with the issue and will be paid out of the proceeds of this offering.

The Underwriting Agreement provides that the Underwriters may, at their discretion, terminate their obligations thereunder upon the occurrence of certain stated events or if there should develop, occur or come into effect or existence any event, action, state, condition or major financial occurrence of national or international consequence, or any action, government law or regulation, inquiry or other occurrence of any nature whatsoever which materially adversely affects, or may in the reasonable opinion of the Underwriters be expected to materially adversely affect, Canadian financial or equity markets or the business, operations or affairs of the Corporation. The Underwriters are, however, obligated to take up and pay for all the Series H First Preferred Shares if any Series H First Preferred Shares are purchased under the Underwriting Agreement.

The Underwriters may not, throughout the period of distribution, bid for or purchase the Series H First Preferred Shares. The foregoing restriction is subject to certain exemptions, as long as the bid or purchase is not engaged in for the purpose of creating actual or apparent active trading in, or raising the price of, the Series H First Preferred Shares. These exceptions include a bid or purchase permitted under the Universal Market Integrity Rules relating to market stabilization and passive market-making activities and a bid or purchase made for and on behalf of a customer where the order was not solicited during the period of distribution. In connection with this offering, the Underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the Series H First Preferred Shares at a level above that which might otherwise prevail in the open market. Such transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time. Great-West Lifeco granted to the Underwriters an option to purchase up to an additional 2,000,000 Series H First Preferred Shares at the offering price hereunder, exercisable up to the close of business on July 26, 2005 and thereafter with the agreement of Great-West Lifeco up to 48 hours before closing of the offering. The Underwriters will be paid an underwriting fee per share equal to $0.25 with respect to the Option Shares sold to certain exempt institutions and $0.75 with respect to all other Option Shares.

The Underwriting Agreement provides that without the prior written consent of BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc. or Scotia Capital Inc., the Corporation will not sell or announce its intention to sell, nor will the Corporation authorize or issue, or announce its intention to authorize or issue, any preferred shares or securities convertible or exchangeable for or exercisable into preferred shares other than the Series H First Preferred Shares during the period commencing on August 12, 2005 and ending 60 days after closing of the offering.

The Series H First Preferred Shares have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "U.S. Securities Act") or any state securities laws and, subject to certain exemptions, may not be offered or sold within the United States or to U.S. persons. The distribution of this short form prospectus and the offering and sale of the Series H First Preferred Shares are also subject to certain restrictions under the laws of certain jurisdictions outside of Canada. Each Underwriter has agreed that it will not offer for sale or sell or deliver the Series H First Preferred Shares in any such jurisdiction except in accordance with the laws thereof.

Great-West Lifeco has a five year term bank loan facility provided by a syndicate of banks, the outstanding balance of which is $150 million. Part or all of the outstanding balance may be repaid through the proceeds realized from the sale of the Series H First Preferred Shares. Each of the following Underwriters is a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of a Canadian chartered bank participating in the term bank loan facility syndicate: Scotia Capital Inc., BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc., CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., TD Securities Inc.

and National Bank Financial Inc. By virtue of the relationship between a Bank-Owned Underwriter and its parent bank participating in the term bank loan facility syndicate, Great-West Lifeco is a connected issuer of each Bank-Owned Underwriter under applicable securities legislation in connection with the offering.

The terms, structure and pricing of the offering of the Series H First Preferred Shares were determined through negotiations between Great-West Lifeco on the one hand and the Underwriters on the other hand. As at the date of this prospectus, Great-West Lifeco is in compliance with the terms and conditions of the term bank loan facility.

The Underwriters propose to offer the Series H First Preferred Shares initially at the offering price specified on the cover page of this short form prospectus. After the Underwriters have made a reasonable effort to sell all of the Series H First Preferred Shares at the price specified on the cover page, the offering price may be decreased and may be further changed from time to time to an amount not greater than that set out on the cover page, and the compensation realized by the Underwriters will be decreased by the amount that the aggregate price paid by purchasers for the Series H First Preferred Shares is less than the price paid by the Underwriters to the Corporation.

The TSX has conditionally approved the listing of the Series H First Preferred Shares. Listing of such shares is subject to the Corporation fulfilling all of the requirements of the TSX on or before October 19, 2005.

Earnings Coverage Ratios

The Corporation's annual dividend requirements on all of its preferred shares, after giving effect to the issue of the Series H First Preferred Shares (including the "Option Shares") and adjusted to a pre-tax equivalent using an effective income tax rate of 24.4% and 24.3% amounted to $133.5 million and $133.3 million for the 12 months ended December 31, 2004 and for the 12 months ended March 31, 2005, respectively.

The Corporation's annualized interest requirements on long-term debt for the 12 months ended December 31, 2004 and for the 12 months ended March 31, 2005 amounted to $157.2 million and $157.1 million, respectively, for each such period.

The Corporation's earnings before interest on long-term debt, dividends on preferred shares classified as liabilities, and income tax for the 12 months ended December 31, 2004 was $2,404.8 million, which is 8.27 times the aggregate adjusted preferred share dividends and interest on long-term debt requirements for that period. The Corporation's earnings before interest on long-term debt, dividends on preferred shares classified as liabilities, and income tax for the 12 months ended March 31, 2005 was $2,461.4 million, which is 8.48 times the aggregate adjusted preferred share dividends and interest on long-term debt requirements for that period.

Ratings

The Series H First Preferred Shares have been given a preliminary rating of Pfd-2 (high) n with a Stable trend by Dominion Bond Rating Service Limited ("DBRS"). Pfd-2 (high) is the fourth highest of sixteen ratings used by DBRS for preferred shares. Preferred shares with a Pfd-2 (high) rating are of satisfactory credit quality, and protection of dividends and principal is still substantial, but earnings, the balance sheet and coverage ratios are not as strong as Pfd-1 rated companies.

The Series H First Preferred Shares have been given preliminary ratings of P-1 (low) Canadian national scale and A- Global scale preferred stock rating by Standard & Poor's Ratings Services, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. ("S&P"). A P-1 (low) rating is the third highest of eighteen ratings used by S&P in its Canadian national preferred share rating scale. Correspondingly, an A- rating is the fifth highest of twenty ratings used by S&P in its Global preferred share rating scale. A preferred share rating of A- indicates that the obligor's capacity to meet its financial commitment on the obligation is still strong, but is somewhat more susceptible to the adverse effects of changes in circumstances and economic conditions than higher rated categories.

Credit ratings are intended to provide investors with an independent assessment of the credit quality of an issue or issuer of securities and do not speak to the suitability of particular securities for any particular investor. A security rating or a stability rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the rating organization.

Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations

In the opinion of Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP, counsel to the Corporation, and Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, the following is a summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations generally applicable to a purchaser of Series H First Preferred Shares pursuant to this short form prospectus (a “Holder”) who, for purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the “Act”) and at all relevant times, is, or is deemed to be, resident in Canada, deals at arm’s length with the Corporation, holds such Series H First Preferred Shares as capital property, is not a “financial institution” as defined by section 142.2 of the Act or a “specified financial institution” as defined in the Act and is not affiliated with the Corporation. Certain holders whose Series H First Preferred Shares might not otherwise be capital property may in certain circumstances be entitled to have the Series H First Preferred Shares and all other “Canadian securities” treated as capital property by making the irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Act. Purchasers who do not hold their Series H First Preferred Shares as capital property, financial institutions and specified financial institutions should consult their own tax advisors with respect to their own particular circumstances.

This summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular purchaser. Accordingly, prospective purchasers should consult their own tax advisors with respect to their particular circumstances.

This summary is based upon the current provisions of the Act, the regulations thereunder, all specific proposals to amend the Act and such regulations publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof (the “Tax Proposals”), and counsel’s understanding of the administrative policies and assessing practices of the Canada Revenue Agency (the “CRA”) made publicly available prior to the date hereof. This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes in law or in the administrative policies or assessing practices of the CRA, whether by legislative, governmental or judicial decision or action, nor does it take into account any provincial, territorial or foreign income tax legislation or considerations. No assurance can be given that the Tax Proposals will be enacted in the form proposed, or at all.

Dividends

Dividends (including deemed dividends) received on the Series H First Preferred Shares by an individual will be included in the individual’s income and will generally be subject to the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules normally applicable to taxable dividends received from taxable Canadian corporations.

Dividends (including deemed dividends) received on Series H First Preferred Shares by a corporation will be included in computing the corporation’s income and will generally be deductible in computing the corporation’s taxable income.

The Series H First Preferred Shares are “taxable preferred shares” as defined in the Act. The terms of the Series H First Preferred Shares require the Corporation to make the necessary election under Part VI.1 of the Act so that Holders will not be subject to tax under Part IV.1 of the Act on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on the Series H First Preferred Shares.

A “private corporation”, as defined in the Act, or any other corporation controlled by or for the benefit of an individual (other than a trust) or a related group of individuals (other than trusts), will generally be liable to pay a 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ % refundable tax under Part IV of the Act on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on the Series H First Preferred Shares to the extent such dividends are deductible in computing its taxable income.

Dispositions

A Holder who disposes of or is deemed to dispose of Series H First Preferred Shares (including on a redemption) will generally realize a capital gain (or sustain a capital loss) to the extent that the Holder’s proceeds of disposition, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base of such shares to the Holder. The amount of any deemed dividend arising on the redemption or acquisition by the Corporation of Series H First Preferred Shares will generally not be included in computing the Holder’s proceeds of disposition for purposes of computing the capital gain or loss arising on a disposition of such Series H First Preferred Shares (see “Redemption”). If the Holder is a corporation, any capital loss arising on a disposition of a Series H First Preferred Share may in certain circumstances be reduced by the amount of any dividends, including deemed dividends, which have been received on the Series H First Preferred Share. Analogous rules apply to a partnership or trust of which a corporation, partnership or trust is a member or beneficiary. Generally, one-half of any capital gain will be included in computing the Holder's income as a taxable capital gain, and one-half of any capital loss may be deducted from the Holder's taxable capital gains in accordance with the rules in the Act.

Corporations that are "Canadian-controlled private corporations" as defined in the Act may be subject to an additional refundable 6²/₃% tax on their "aggregate investment income" (which is defined in the Act to include an amount in respect of taxable capital gains but not dividends or deemed dividends deductible in computing taxable income).

Redemption

If the Corporation redeems Series H First Preferred Shares, or otherwise acquires or cancels Series H First Preferred Shares (other than by a purchase in the open market in the manner in which shares are normally purchased by any member of the public in the open market), the Holder will be deemed to have received a dividend equal to the amount, if any, paid by the Corporation in excess of the paid-up capital of such shares at such time as computed for purposes of the Act. Generally, the difference between the amount paid and the amount of the deemed dividend will be treated as proceeds of disposition for purposes of computing the capital gain or capital loss arising on the disposition of such shares. In the case of a corporate Holder, it is possible that in certain circumstances all or part of any such deemed dividend may be treated as proceeds of disposition and not as a dividend.

Risk Factors

Investors should consider carefully before purchasing Series H First Preferred Shares the following risks in conjunction with the other information in this prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein, in particular the disclosure under the headings “Risk Factors” and “Dividends” in the Corporation’s Annual Information Form dated March 28, 2005.

Holding Company Structure

As a holding company, Great-West Lifeco’s ability to pay dividends and other operating expenses and to meet its obligations generally depends upon receipt of sufficient funds from its principal subsidiaries and its ability to raise additional capital. The likelihood that holders of Series H First Preferred Shares will receive the payments owing to them in connection with the Series H First Preferred Shares will be dependent upon the financial position and creditworthiness of Great-West Life, GWL&A, London Life and Canada Life. In the event of the bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization of any of these subsidiaries, policy liabilities of these subsidiaries will be completely provided for before any assets of such subsidiaries are made available for distribution to Great-West Lifeco; in addition, the other creditors of these subsidiaries will generally be entitled to the payment of their claims before any assets are made available for distribution to Great-West Lifeco except to the extent that Great-West Lifeco is recognized as a creditor of the relevant subsidiaries. The payment of dividends and interest by the principal subsidiaries is also subject to restrictions set forth in the insurance, securities and corporate laws and regulations (including OSFI’s staged intervention powers) which require that solvency and capital standards be maintained by Great-West Life, GWL&A, London Life and Canada Life. The principal subsidiaries have no obligation, contingent or otherwise, to pay amounts due to holders of securities of Great-West Lifeco.

Operational Risk

The businesses conducted by Great-West Lifeco’s principal subsidiaries are subject to risks including competition from other businesses, dependence on key personnel, claims risk, persistency (policy termination) risk, reliance on information technology systems, investment related risk, reinsurance risk and underwriting experience of morbidity, mortality and catastrophic risk.

Regulatory Environment

The businesses of certain of Great-West Lifeco’s principal subsidiaries are subject to various regulatory requirements imposed by legislation and regulation in Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom and other jurisdictions applicable to insurance companies and companies providing financial services. These regulations are primarily intended to protect policyholders and beneficiaries, not shareholders. Material changes in the regulatory framework or the failure to comply with regulatory requirements could have a material adverse effect on Great-West Lifeco.

General Economic Conditions

Unfavourable economic conditions may materially adversely affect the businesses of Great-West Lifeco’s principal subsidiaries and, in turn, may materially adversely affect Great-West Lifeco and its financial condition.

Series H First Preferred Shares

The value of Series H First Preferred Shares will be affected by the general creditworthiness of Great-West Lifeco. Great-West Lifeco’s Management’s Discussion and Analysis for the year ended December 31, 2004 and interim Management’s Discussion and Analysis for the three-month period ended March 31, 2005 is incorporated by reference in this short form prospectus. These analyses discuss, among other things, known material trends and events, and risks or uncertainties that are reasonably expected to have a material effect on Great-West Lifeco's business, financial condition or results of operations. See also the discussion under "Earnings Coverage Ratios", which is relevant to an assessment of the risk that Great-West Lifeco will be unable to pay dividends on the Series H First Preferred Shares.

The market value of the Series H First Preferred Shares, as with other preferred shares, is primarily affected by changes (actual or anticipated) in prevailing interest rates and in the credit rating assigned to such shares. Real or anticipated changes in credit ratings on the Series H First Preferred Shares may also affect the cost at which Great-West Lifeco can transact or obtain funding, and thereby affect its liquidity, business, financial condition or results of operations.

The Series H First Preferred Shares rank equally with other First Preferred Shares of Great-West Lifeco in the event of an insolvency or winding-up of Great-West Lifeco. If Great-West Lifeco becomes insolvent or is wound-up, Great-West Lifeco's assets must be used to pay debt, including subordinated debt, before payments may be made on Series H First Preferred Shares and other preferred shares.

The Series H First Preferred Shares are non-cumulative and dividends are payable at the discretion of the Board of Directors of Great-West Lifeco. See "Details of the Offering" and "Earnings Coverage Ratios", which are relevant to an assessment of the risk that Great-West Lifeco will be unable to pay dividends on the Series H First Preferred Shares.

Stock market volatility may affect the market price of the Series H First Preferred Shares for reasons unrelated to Great-West Lifeco's performance.

There can be no assurance that an active trading market will develop for the Series H First Preferred Shares after the offering, or if developed, that such a market will be sustained at the offering price of the Series H First Preferred Shares.

Book-Based System

Registration of interest in and transfers of the Series H First Preferred Shares will only be made through the book-based system administered by CDS. On or about the Closing Date, the Corporation will deliver to CDS a certificate evidencing the aggregate number of Series H First Preferred Shares subscribed for under this offering. Series H First Preferred Shares must be purchased, transferred and surrendered for redemption through a participant in CDS (a "CDS Participant"). All rights of an owner of Series H First Preferred Shares must be exercised through, and all payments or other property to which such owner is entitled will be made or delivered by, CDS or the CDS Participant through which the owner holds Series H First Preferred Shares. Upon a purchase of any Series H First Preferred Shares, the owner will receive only the customary confirmation. References in this short form prospectus to a holder of Series H First Preferred Shares mean, unless the context otherwise requires, the owner of the beneficial interest in such shares.

The ability of a beneficial owner of Series H First Preferred Shares to pledge such shares or otherwise take action with respect to such owner's interest in such shares (other than through a CDS Participant) may be limited due to the lack of a physical certificate.

The Corporation has the option to terminate registration of the Series H First Preferred Shares through the book-based system, in which event certificates for Series H First Preferred Shares in fully registered form will be issued to the beneficial owners of such shares or their nominees.

Experts

Certain legal matters in connection with this offering will be passed upon by Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP for the Corporation and by Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP for the Underwriters. As of July 22, 2005, the partners and associates of Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP as a group and the partners and associates of Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP as a group, owned beneficially, directly or indirectly, less than one percent of any class of securities of the Corporation or any associated party or affiliate of the Corporation.

The registrar and transfer agent for the Series H First Preferred Shares will be Computershare Investor Services Inc. or its agent at its principal office in each of the cities of Vancouver, Calgary, Toronto and Montreal.

Purchasers' Statutory Rights

Securities legislation in certain of the provinces and territories of Canada provides purchasers with the right to withdraw from an agreement to purchase securities. This right may be exercised within two business days after receipt or deemed receipt of a prospectus and any amendment. In several of the provinces and territories, the securities legislation further provides a purchaser with remedies for rescission or, in some jurisdictions, damages if the prospectus and any amendment contains a misrepresentation or is not delivered to the purchaser, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser's province or territory. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser's province or territory for the particulars of these rights or consult with a legal adviser.
